

Grow Your Own...and Plant A Row for Harvesters

Whether you're an experienced gardener hoping to learn a few new tricks or someone planting your first patch this spring, now is a great time to take a gardening class. The following organizations are offering a variety of classes in the coming weeks:

- Blue River Community College, 816.220.6518
- Blue Springs Community Education Program, 816.224.1364
- Johnson County Extension, www.johnson.ksu.edu, click on Lawn and Garden
- Johnson County Parks & Recreation, www.jcprd.com or 913.642.6410
- Kansas City Community Gardens, www.kccg.org or 816.931.3877
- Master Gardeners of Greater Kansas City, www.mggkc.org or 816.252.5051
- North Kansas City School District Adult Education Program, 816.413.5494
- Park Hill Community Education Program, 816.359.4060
- Wyandotte County Extension, www.wyandotte.ksu.edu or 913.299.9300

When you plant your garden this spring, don't forget to plant an extra row of fruits or vegetables for the hungry. Gardeners will be able to donate fresh produce for Harvesters at garden centers across the metro this summer.
