Through the support of friends like you, Harvesters is working at an accelerated pace to make sure our neighbors impacted by the COVID-19 crisis have access to the food they need. At a time when so many people are needing food assistance for the first time, your support is more important than ever.

Want to know just how much we've done together?
See how our distribution numbers compare to the same time period last year.

The need remains high. Will you stand with us and help provide for our community?
We can only grow stronger TOGETHER.